Father Ward, of Dunkirk, N. Y., an eloquent member of the Passionist order, will preach a sermon on the passion in St. Thomas church on Friday evening. He will also preach at the last mass on Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Patrick Kearney, of Laurel street, who has been ill for several weeks, is slowly but steadily improving.

The Knights of Father Matthew are making preparations for the holding of a grand musical and literary entertainment sometime next month.

M. F. Gilhool has gone to Jamestown, N. Y., to assume his new position, assistant superintendent of the Jamestown district of the Metropolitan Insurance company, of New York.

Mr. Gilhool's many friends here hope that success will attend him in his new charge.

All the Archbold applicants succeeded in getting licenses for the coming year. In all, twenty-three licenses have been granted. It does not necessarily follow, however, that all those will take out licenses, for in previous years many of those who were granted permission did not avail themselves of it.

Michael Gawnly, the boy who was injured by falling off a mine car a few weeks ago, is rapidly recovering.

St. Patrick's Day was very quietly observed here. There was no work in any of the mines hereabouts, and many took advantage of the cheap excursion rates and went to Wilkes-Barre to see the parade. At St. Thomas church mass was celebrated, and Rev. Dr. Lusk delivered a pungent sermon on the life and work of Ireland's patron saint.

The East Side orchestra bands each observed the day by giving open air concerts much to the pleasure of the large crowd that listened to their entrancing music.

Merchant Peter Kraft of South Main street, was in Scranton yesterday.

The new board of health will meet for organization on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. It is hoped that every member will be present.

John Sheztinsky and two other Polish residents of Greenwood, while out in the woods Sunday celebrating the Sabbath with guns and revolvers, came near losing their lives. Pete Woloskie, another of the party, was in the act of firing a piece of paper when the gun was pointed at a tree, when Sheztinsky grasped the weapon to shoot with it. In extending hold of it he turned it downward as it discharged, and the ball, which was of a 45 calibre type, entered his thigh a little above the knee, tearing away the flesh and badly lacerating that member. A warrant was issued immediately for the arrest of the other two Huns, who were arraigned before Justice O'Hara and held in $500 for their appearance at court.

FOREST CITY NOTES.

Matters of General Interest Carefully Cleaned and Condensed.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FOREST CITY, Pa., March 19.—The great dramatic cantata, "Rebecca," was rendered Sunday evening in the opera house before a large and appreciative audience. All of those having solo parts and the members of the chorus did especially good work. To John Luther Morgan, the conductor, a large amount of credit must be given.

After Typhoid and Malaria

Hood's Sarsaparilla Purified and Built Up the System.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.": "Gentlemen—Two years ago I was taken with a very severe illness, beginning with erysipelas, and then had typhoid and malaria fever. After I got up and out of bed I thought I was cured, but was mistaken. In a short time a humor broke out on my face, at first causing the skin to be rough and itchy and gradually developing into sores, which spread until

My Head was Covered with them. No one can imagine how I suffered with the great itching and burning. Prescriptions had no effect. A friend advised me to take
